Late Foreign Intelligence.

LONDON, February 15.

A mail from Hamburg arrived yesterday morning, the principal contents of which are given in another part of our paper. Reſpecting the preparations for the invaſions of this country, we find little intelligence beyond that of which we were previouſly poſſeſſed. From the Hague it is ſtated, that ſome diviſions of the Batavian troops, under the command of Generals Dumonceau, Cras, and Quatta, have received orders to march to the Texel, where a fleet of men of war and tranſports is collected for their conveyance to the Engliſh coaſt; while letters from Amſterdam ſay, that the expedition will not ſail before the end of March, owing to the length of time that is requiſite to collect the ſeveral flotillas at Boulogne, which, when complete, will conſiſt of not leſs than 1500 veſſels of different deſcriptions. This ſtatement of the probable delay of the attempt may however, be intended merely for the purpoſe of deception, in order to put us off our guard; but if this be really the intention of our enemy, he will find himſelf completely diſappointed in his object. We poſſeſs at preſent a proud and commanding ſtation, from which neither the force nor the artifice of the enemy is capable of removing us; and come when he may, he will find us ready to give him the reception he merits. That every effort is making to render the hoſtile preparations ſtill more formidable than they are at preſent, we have every reaſon to believe; and know, indeed that ſome time ſince orders were iſſued by the Firſt Conſul for the building, with all poſſible diſpatch, of ſeveral hundred ſtrong armed veſſels, of a deſcription ſimilar to thoſe lately captured by two of our frigates off La Hogue, and that near five hundred of them are already completed in the different ports of the Republic. To collect theſe at any given point will neceſſarily require ſome time, and if any further delay takes place it will we are perſuaded, ariſe from this circumſtance alone. Of the military movements in Holland, the following ſtatement is given in an article from the Hague, of the 25th ult.

"A remarkable buſtle and movement has within theſe few days been obſerved among the Batavian land forces intended to take a part in the expedition againſt the Britiſh Iſlands. Of the 16 battalions of Infantry which are deſtined for the expedition, and which had already been ſtationed at a greater or leſs diſtance around the Texel, ſeven of them are on their march, in order to draw nearer to that central point, two of them are in motion from Medemblicks and Hoorn to the Helder. One proceeds from Enkhizen to Seagerburg; one from Mulden to Schagen; one from Amſterdam, and two from Harderwick for Alkmaar."

Freſh diſturbances have broke out in Egypt, which, to all appearance, have been the effect of French intrigue. The Arnauts and Arabs are ſtated to have riſen in rebellion, and taken poſſeſſion of Alexandria; in conſequence of which, all the foreign agents, except the French Commercial Commiſſioner, have left the place.—The latter circumſtance alone affords ſufficient ground of ſuſpicion with reſpect to the part which the agents of France are now acting in that unhappy country; while the movements in Lower Italy, and on the ſhores of the Adriatic, leave but little doubt of the perfidious intentions of Bonaparte with regard to the Turkiſh Empire. We entertain a confident hope, however, that any attempts which the enemy may be induced to make, will be effectually fruſtrated by the indefatigable vigilance of our ſquadron in that direction.

From Hanover we learn that the French general not only continues, but almoſt daily increaſes, his oppreſſive exactions in that country. A new requiſition of 1000 horſes, and a quantity of great coats has been made, and an additional ſum of 1,600,000 francs has been demanded for the uſe of the troops. The enemy are beſides carrying off all the cannon from the different fortreſſes; and the whole country labours under the ſevereſt diſtreſs. Ruſſia, as we have already ſtated, is by no means an inattentive obſerver of theſe and other ſimilar proceedings in the north.—An immenſe military force is certainly collected on the frontiers of that empire, and the number of troops now ready to act, in caſe of neceſſity, is ſtated to exceed 200,000.

At a late hour, laſt night, we received a variety of extracts from the Paris Journals to the 26th ult. We find by theſe, that the Miniſter of Marine has returned to Paris from the coaſt, which he appears to have very minutely inſpected. It was reported that the Firſt Conſul propoſed to ſet out once more from the capital on the 25th, while other accounts ſaid that his departure would be further delayed for two or three weeks. On the 22d a Deputation of the Legiſlative Body did homage to Bonaparte and his Lady, after which the Conſul reviewed the troops, and preſented colours to ſome Italian and other regiments. Some of the former have marched for the coaſts for the purpoſe of being employed in the expedition againſt England. From Breſt and the other ports, there is no news worthy of notice.

Diſpatches were yeſterday received at the Admiralty office from Admiral Cornwallis, off Breſt, dated the 8th inſtant, at which time he had juſt been joined by the Minotaur, of 74 guns, and the San Joſeff, of 112 guns, all well.

February 16.

Another Hamburgh Mail arrived yeſterday, but it is not ſo late as that arrived on Tueſday, and contains no news of importance. We find no mention of the levy of 80,000 men, ſaid in letters from Stockholm to have been ordered by the Emperor of Ruſſia.

February 17.

A letter from a naval officer belonging to one of our cruizers off the Dutch coaſt, ſtates, that on Sunday laſt a hundred and fifty gun-boats were diſtinctly counted in the port of Flushing; and that, according to the information derived from ſome fiſhermen, the troops in the neighbourhood of that place amounted to about 50,000, numbers of whom daily embarked on board the boats and tranſports by way of exerciſe; but in theſe manœuvres the flotilla never ventured beyond the reach of the land batteries. Several of the Dutch towns are crowded with Frenchmen, who are employed as ſpies upon the conduct of the unfortunate inhabitants; and other advices, which reached town yeſterday, ſtate, that the latter are obliged to purchaſe permiſſion to paſs certain preſcribed boundaries, while the former are under no reſtraint whatever.

We are happy to ſay, the report of the Prince of Wales's health yeſterday was "his Royal Highneſs is perfectly recovered."

Mr. Fox we underſtand has been with the Prince of Wales every day ſince Monday laſt.

The deciſion of the Judges in the caſe of Aſtlett, was yeſterday delivered at the Old Bailey, by Mr. Baron Hotham. It is againſt the priſoner. He will be tranſported.

February 18.

At a late hour laſt night we received a variety of extracts from the Paris Journals to the 31ſt ult. They contain no intelligence of importance. They mention the march of the cavalry from Compeigne for Boulogne; and the conviction of a few perſons accuſed of having contrived ſome curious inſtrument for the deſtruction of the Firſt Conſul. This plot is, as uſual, attributed by the Moniteur to Engliſh agency.

The latest accounts from our ſquadron off Boulogne ſtate, that the Leopard, Leda, Immortalite, Squirrel, Locuſt, Archer, Dutcheſs of Cumberland and Griffin cutters, remained at anchor cloſe off Boulogne harbor the whole of Sunday, Monday, Tueſday, and almoſt all Wedneſday. They obſerved that the addition of force at Boulogne of late has been very conſiderable. There are upwards of 120 ſail of brigs, ſchooners, &c. excluſive of gun boats, in all not leſs than 800 ſail.—The principal part have moored up the harbour into the different new baſons which have been made.

On Sunday the Immortalite, Dutcheſs of Cumberland, and Griffin cutters, attacked ſome gun boats between Cape Griſnez and Boulogne, on their way to the latter. A ſevere fire was kept up from the batteries on ſhore upon our veſſels, but without doing them any injury. The Immortalite ſhot away the maſt of one of the gun boats.

For upwards of an hour on Wedneſday morning our ſquadron was becalmed. The enemy perceived it, and a fire was lighted on the heights, which was ſuppoſed to be a ſignal for attack. Great buſtle was immediately perceived, and the pier head was crowded with ſoldiers, and others dragged out gun boats to attempt the attack on our ſquadron, for which they conſidered the circumſtances as favourable. A breeze ſpringing up, however, they again returned into harbour.

At break of day on Wedneſday laſt a prodigious volume of ſmoke was obſerved from ſeveral parts of the coaſt for four hours, in the direction of Boulogne, and at intervals the horizon above that place ſeemed to be entirely illuminated.—This phenomenon has given riſe to various conjectures, and it is ſuppoſed that it was occaſioned by a conflagration of the enemy's flotilla, which by ſome means or other had caught fire. It is reported alſo, that ſome of the French troops have laid down their arms, and that the utmoſt diſaffection prevails along the whole coaſt. The poor deluded wretches who compoſe the French army deſtined for the expedition againſt this country are, it is ſaid, ſunk in deſpondency, and have loſt all hopes of being able to effect a landing as they are ſo cloſely watched by our blockading ſquadron, the commanders of which are certainly entitled to the higheſt praiſe for their perſeverance, having remained at anchor cloſe to Boulogne during ſo tempeſtuous weather.

Yeſterday morning there was ſome firing off Calais, and a prize was brought into Dover in the afternoon.

It is calculated that the enemy's naval equipments at Boulogne will contain upwards 60,000 men, and it is the opinion of moſt of the officers in the ſquadron in the Downs, that the enemy will immediately attempt ſomething, if they ever intended any thing.

Corn Exchange, February 17.

Wheat is here to day in good ſupply; from the recent reductions, and further expected, ſales are made only for that in immediate requeſt, which is a trifle lower; the fine Dantzic 57s. Barley and Malt at a little variation in price; new Beans are rather cheaper; Oats are in good plenty, with ſome foreign cargoes, and many expected, this article has ſomewhat better ſale to day; Flour is plentiful.

Wheat 25, 35, a 51s. Fine ditto 52 a 53s. Rye 28 a 31s. Barley 18 a 23s. Fine Flour 37 a 42s. Seconds 33 a 37s.

DOVER, February 17.

This morning, very early, we heard diſtinctly, the firing of guns ſeemingly in the direction of Calais; and this afternoon the Squirrel frigate anchored in the roads, with a ſchuyt fitted up for horſes; ſhe was one of 24 ſail bound to Boulogne. The ſignal has been hoiſted, and we learn that 70 ſail of gun boats and tranſports were endeavoring to go along ſhore from Fluſhing to Bologne, but our cruizers have obliged them to take ſhelter in Calais. Some heavy firing has been heard, and the Squirrel has received a cannon ſhot through her cutwater, but no other damage. Juſt arrived, the Phœnix ſloop, having loſt anchors and cables off Broadſtairs; part of our ſhips are blockading the gun boats in Calais—the reſt are off Bologne. Sailed for the Downs the Champion frigate, the Squirrel, the Speculator lugger, and a cutter.

This morning arrived the Hamburg Mail due on Sunday laſt. The following are its principal contents.

PARIS, Jan. 25.

The firſt Conſul has frequent conferences with his brother in law, General Murat, now Governor of Paris. Who will be appointed in his ſtead to the chief command of the Italian army is as yet unknown.

The late Commander here, General Junto, is arrived at Araſs, where he has aſſumed the command over the Legion d'Elite. It is to conſiſt of 6000 infantry, 1500 cavalry and 500 of artillery.

The Moniteur ſtates, that the Engliſh priſoners of war arrived at Morlaix, have declared that in late ſtorms above three hundred merchant veſſels have been wrecked on the coaſts of Ireland and Scotland.

January 27.

All the generals who are to have command in the expedition againſt England are preparing to ſet out for the coaſt in a few days. They immediately embark on board the Flotilla, and every thing will be held in readineſs to get under ſail the firſt favorable wind.

It is ſaid that Denon, the director of the Muſeum, who accompanied Bonaparte to Egypt, will likewiſe accompany him in his new journey.

It is aſſerted in the Moniteur, that the captain Paſha, who lately died at Conſtantinople, was a great admirer of Bonaparte, and that the preſent Captain Paſha, Cadir Bey, ſhewed many particular civilities to colonel Sebaſtiana in his journey to Egypt.

The Italian diviſion ſets out this day for Boulogne.

The general of brigade Merle now in the territory of Hanover, is appointed a member of the Legion of Honour.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Jan. 2.

Advices have been received from the Paſha of Janina, that an adjutant of general St. Cyr had arrived in the Morea, with letters of recommendation from that general. He appears to have obſerved and inſpected every thing in the Peninſula. The object of his journey, as he ſays, is to purchaſe Turkiſh horſes in the Morea for the uſe of the French army.

The Neapolitan Charge d' Affaires at the Porte has given in the Turkiſh government ſeveral written communications relative to the ſtate of affairs in Italy and its vicinity.

Official accounts have been received from Egypt, that the Beys, after ſtipulating for certain privileges, have at length agreed to the convention propoſed by the Turkiſh government; by which the poſſeſſion of Alexandria and Egypt is, at leaſt for a time, ſecured to the Porte.

MENTZ, Jan. 31.

HAGUE, January 31.

Laſt Saturday we heard a heavy cannonade from Flushing; and it was conjectured that the enemy had made an attack on our flotilla. The Marine Council immediately ſent off an officer to make inquiry, who however returned on the following day with advice that it was only occaſioned by a grand manœuvering of 40 veſſels, with which Admiral Verheul had ſailed out of the road. As there are now ſuch a number of ſhips at Flushing, General Monnet has increaſed the meaſures of precaution to prevent the veſſels from being ſet on fire, either by negligence or the emiſſaries of the enemy.

More than one hundred veſſels from the interior canals of the republic, are expected ſoon to join the flotilla at Flushing.

In the repreſentation of the Directory, relative to the new contributions of forty millions, the general poverty and diſtreſſed ſtate of the country is pourtrayed in the ſtrongeſt terms; with reſpect to the contributions, it is expreſsly aſſerted that the perſons in our republic who have property to the amount of a million of Florins, is about 200.

MADRID, January 16.

On Friday in the afternoon, the 13th inſtant between five and ſix in the evening, a ſmart ſhock of an earthquake was felt here, which occaſioned the more alarm, as this phenomenon is almoſt totally unknown here. The direction of the ſhock was from North to ſouth. A ſhock nearly ſimilar was felt here at the time of the earthquake at Liſbon, and it is probable this has been much more conſiderable in ſome other country.

SATURDAY, March 24.

Yeſterday Mr. William Harper was elected to ſupply the vacancy in the council occaſioned by the reſiguation of James Keith, Eſq.

On Wednesday laſt, Mr. Nicholſon, from the committee of Ways and Means, preſented a bill further to protect the ſeamen and commerce of the United States againſt the Barbary powers.

The bill provides that an additional duty of two and half per centum be laid upon all imported goods at preſent charged with a duty ad valorem, and an additional duty of ten per cent. on all ſuch duties payable on goods imported in foreign veſſels. The proceeds of theſe duties are to conſtitute a fund, to be called the Mediterranean fund. The duties to ceaſe within three months after a peace with Tripoli, in caſe the United States are not engaged in war with ſome other of the Barbary powers, in which caſe they are to ceaſe within three months after a peace with ſuch powers. The Preſident is authoriſed to caused to be purchaſed or built, two veſſels of war to carry 16 guns each, and as many gun boats as he may think proper. One million of dollars, additional to the ſum heretofore appropriated, is placed under the direction of the President for the naval ſervice, which ſum he is authoriſed to borrow at a rate of intereſt not exceeding ſix per cent.

Mr. Nicholſon moved that this bill ſhould be made the order for this day.

Mr. R. Griſwold moved to-morrow.

The queſtion on "to-morrow"—was loſt—Ayes 43—Noes 50—when Mr. Nicholſon's motion prevailed.

On Thurſday an engroſſed bill further to protect the commerce and ſeamen of the United States againſt the Barbary powers was read the third time.

Mr. Huger aſked for the call of the Yeas and Nays; to ſhew, by recording his vote, that although he was unequivocally hoſtile to the mode of taxation propoſed by the bill, yet he ſhould vote in favor of the bill for the purpoſe of maintaining the character and intereſts of the country.

Mr. J. C. Smith made a few remarks to the ſame effect.

When the queſtion was taken by Yeas and Nays on the paſſage of the bill, and carried by an unanimous vote—Yeas 98—Noes, NONE.

Congress of the United States.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

Thurſday, March 15.

The bill for appropriating 50,000 dollars for progreſſing with the public buildings in the city of Waſhington, after having paſſed through a committee of the whole, was ordered to a third reading to morrow.

The Houſe went into committee of the whole on the bill providing rules for the government of the army.

The fifth article is in the words following:

Art. 5. Whatſoever officer or ſoldier ſhall preſume to uſe traiterous or diſreſpectful words, againſt the Preſident of the United States, againſt the Vice Preſident thereof, againſt the Congreſs of the United States, or againſt the chief magiſtrate or legiſlature of any of the United States in which he may be quartered, if a commiſſioned officer, he ſhall be caſhiered, or otherwiſe puniſhed as a court martial ſhall direct, if a non-commiſſioned officer or ſoldier, he ſhall ſuffer ſuch puniſhment as ſhall be inflicted on him by the ſentence of a court martial.

Mr. Nicholſon moved to ſtrike out this article.

Mr. Varnum, deſired before the queſtion was put, to be indulged with an opportunity of reading the article at preſent in force, which would ſhew that in principle it was the ſame with that in the bill.

Mr. V. read the old article under conſideration, the only variation ariſing from the old proviſion applying to the "Congreſs of the United States and legiſlatures."

Why gentlemen ſhould now be inclined to leaving the army looſe to calumniate the government, he could not ſay.

Mr. Nicholſon. It is not my wiſh to fence round the Preſident, Vice Preſident, and Congreſs with a ſecond ſedition law. If the officers of the army conduct themſelves improperly it is in the power of the executive to puniſh them—They can be removed at the will of the preſident, or by the court martial. Beſides, I do not underſtand the ſection. I aſk, what is the meaning of traitorous words uſed againſt the preſident, Vice Preſident and Congreſs. I know of no traitorous words that can be uſed. There are none ſuch that can be found in the conſtitution; and I am decidedly oppoſed to any ſuch mode of eſtabliſhing, by the ſide way means, ſo dangerous a conſtruction.

The queſtion was then taken on Mr. Nicholſon's motion, and carried, Ayes 58.

After ſome further conſideration of the bill, the committee roſe and the Houſe, by a great majority, refuſed them leave to ſit again. This is probably a virtual rejection of the bill for the preſent ſeſſion.

The houſe went into a committee of the whole on the bill for the government of Louiſiana. Mr. Dawſon in the chair.

The ſubſtitute of Mr. Early for the 4th ſection of the bill was, with ſome verbal amendments, agreed to. Ayes 51.

The bill was reported to the Houſe, who concurred with the committee in ſtriking out the 4th ſection of the bill (giving the Preſident the power of appointing the legiſlative council) yeas 74—nays 23, and in their agreement to Mr. Earley's ſubſtitute—yeas 58, nays 42.

After conſiderable diſcuſſion of various features of the bill, the Houſe adjourned, without cloſing its conſideration.

A more particular ſketch of this day's proceedings will be given hereafter.

RESOLV'D as her poet of Celia to ſing,
For ideas of beauty, I ſearch'd thro' the ſpring,
To flowers ſoft blooming compared the ſweet maid,
But flowers tho' blooming at evening may fade.

II.

Of ſunſhine and breezes I next thought to write,
Of breezes ſo ſoft and of ſunſhine ſo bright,
But theſe with my fair no reſemblance will hold,
For ſun ſets at night and the breezes grow cold.

III.

The clouds of mild evening arrayed in pale blue,
While the ſun beams behind them peep'd glittering thro';
Tho' to rival her charms they can never ariſe,
Yet methought they look'd ſomething like Celia's bright eyes.

IV.

Theſe beauties are tranſient, but Celia's will laſt,
When ſpring, and when ſummer, and autumn are paſt;
For ſenſe and good humour no ſeaſon diſarms,
And the ſoul of my Celia enlivens her charms.

V.

At length on a fruit tree a bloſſom I found,
Which beauty diſplayed and ſhed fragrance around;
I then thought the muſes had ſmil'd on my pray'r,
This bloſſom, I cried, will reſemble my fair.

VI.

Theſe colours ſo gay and united ſo well,
This delicate texture and raviſhing ſmell,
Be her perſon's ſweet emblem; but where ſhall I find,
In nature, a beauty that equals her mind?

VII.

This bloſſom ſo pleaſing at ſummer's gay call,
Muſt languiſh at firſt and afterwards fall;
But behind it the fruit, its ſucceſſor ſhall riſe,
By nature diſrobed of her beauteous diſguiſe.

VIII.

So Celia when youth, that gay bloſſom is o'er,
By her virtues improved ſhall engage me the more—
Shall recall every beauty that brightened her prime,
When her merit is ripen'd by care and by time.

REANIMATION.

WHEN the moſt important functions of life are ſuſpended, and thoſe who are invalids by imprudence, inheritance, accident or diſeaſe, are tottering upon the brink of the grave, it is not in deſpair that relief is to be found: There is a medicine which has reſtored thouſands from infirmity and miſery to health and happineſs, which is

THE AROMATIC

LOZENGES OF STEEL.

Since this excellent medicine was firſt diſcovered by Dr. Bardwell, ſeveral thouſand females have experienced its ſalutary effects; many of whom had been reduced to the brink of the grave having uſed every remedy recommended as ſpecifi in theſe complaints, and had made every application to the faculty that could be obtained. The following recent caſe is ſelected from a numerous liſt.

From Mrs. Eleanor Wadſworth, Providence, (R. I.)

Sir,

WE received yours and with much pleaſure comply with your requeſt, as my daughter has certainly received very great benefit from Dr. Bardwell's Aromatic Lozenges of Steel.

In the winter of 1802 my daughter, who is in her 17th year caught a very ſevere cold, which with the violent fever which accompanied it, confined her to her room upwards of four months; during this period we paid for Doctors bills and conſultations 150 dollars. The fever left her in the moſt deplorable, and debilitated ſtate with hardly any uſe of her limbs, ſo that we were obliged to carry her from the bed to the chair. Being ſtrongly perſuaded by the Doctor we went to Ball-Town Springs and ſtayed the ſeaſon, and thought ſhe gained conſiderable ſtrength by the uſe of the waters; but by the fatigue of the paſſage (having very rough weather) ſhe became as weak and her cough much worſe than before. During the laſt winter her whole nervous ſyſtem has been ſo irritable, and her ſpirits ſo low and depreſſed, that death to her was deſirable. In the latter end of January we ſaw an Advertiſement recommending the Lozenges of Steel for ſimilar complaints, we immediately purchaſed a packet of them, and before the whole of them were taken, they evidently produced a change in her ſyſtem, which no medicine before had been able to effect; we ſent for two more packets. It is now fourteen days ſince ſhe began to mend; ſhe has laid aſide her crutches, has been twice on horſe back, and if the weather ſhould prove favorable we intend coming to Peeks-kill early in April to ſtop until we go to Balls-Town Springs: from there we will ſend you our addreſs, where with pleaſure we will ſatisfy any enquiries.

Price one Dollar per Packet.

Particular directions for their uſe are ſealed up with each but as the great benefit to be derived from them can only be ſecured by having them genuine, the public are requeſted to obſerve that the name of Thomas Stokes & Co. are affixed to each packet, without which mark of authenticity they are not genuine

This lottery has been authorised by the legislature of Virginia, for the laudable purpose of erecting a seminary of learning in or near the metropolis of this state. With this view, it is contemplated to raise 20,000 dollars, and 4,500 dollars in addition, for defraying the expences attendant on drawing the lottery. Citizens of the first respectability have been selected as trustees, and they have pledged themselves to use their utmost exertions to carry it into effect. The scheme has the advantage of giving to each adventurer, a chance for some very large prizes, whilst the proportion of prizes to blanks, is so great as to invite the friends of the intended institution to partake of the lottery, with very little risk of their becoming loosers. The treasurer of this state is to be appointed to receive the money for the tickets as they are sold, and to pay the amount of the prizes to the fortunate adventurers. It is believed that the above considerations will induce a rapid sale of tickets and the drawing will commence as soon as a sufficient number shall be sold to authorize it—which it is believed will be on the second Monday in December next.

WHEREAS

my two tracts of land in the county of King George known by the name of Eagles Nest and Somerset, which have for many years past, with the slaves, stock of every kind, furniture and plantation utensils thereon, been under the management of Benjamin Grymes, (and which were lent by me to him, for the support of his family during his life) having in consequence of his decease reverted to me; and it being my wish and intention that all his just debts should be discharged as fast as the money can be raised, either from the profits of the above named Estates, or by a sale of such of the perishable property as can best be spared. It is my request that all who have claims against the late Benjamin Grymes will bring them in fairly stated, and legally authenticated as soon as they conveniently can, either to Mr. William Fitzhugh Grymes who resides at Eagle Nest or to me in Alexandria. And it is also my request, that all persons who are indebted to the deceased, or to the said estates, will discharge their balances as soon as possible, either to W. F. Grymes, or to me.
